

Graduate Studies
CONTRACT FOR NON-TRADITIONAL COURSE
 (Special Problems, Independent Study, Research Problems, etc.)

To Students: Directed study courses must be approved by both the DGS and Chair through a two-part process: before planning a directed study, the student should [1] approach the DGS and supervising instructor regarding the feasibility of the course; then [2] complete this "Contract for Non-Traditional Course" with the supervising instructor and acquire the necessary signatures. After you have all departmental signatures, bring to the Dean's office for the final signature. Take your copy to the Registrar's Office to register for this course.
